2014 SEC Tournament Champions

Entering its 29th season of existence, the Georgia softball program has made noise across the collegiate softball landscape. From five Women's College World Series appearances to three Southeastern Conference titles, Georgia has established itself a winning tradition.

Since the 1997 inaugural season, the Bulldogs have accumulated 1,201 wins, including 393 in SEC action. A majority of those wins came under the helm of Lu Harris-Champer, who collected 959 in her 21 years in the Classic City. Georgia had 40-win seasons in 17 of the 20 years under Harris-Champer, including seven of those with 50 or more victories.

The winning doesn't stop when the regular season ends but carries on into postseason action. Hot bats and clutch pitching propelled Georgia to a second-place finish in the SEC and trips to the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010. In 2014, the Bulldogs brought home the SEC Tournament crown after defeating Kentucky in the championship game. The team chemistry of the 2016 squad carried the Bulldogs to Oklahoma City. For the second time in three seasons, Georgia appeared in OKC in 2018, sweeping its way through the Athens Regional and Super Regional. In Harris-Champer's final season in 2021, the Bulldogs made an improbable run to Oklahoma City as an unseeded team.

The past 22 years have seen Georgia in an NCAA Regional while appearing in 13 Super Regionals, with 84 wins in the program's NCAA Championship history.

Georgia's winning tradition doesn't just stem from the Bulldogs' accomplishments in regular-season games, but from what it has achieved when those are over.

The Bulldogs have made themselves a mainstay in NCAA Championship action, making it to an NCAA Regional in each of the past 22 seasons. Georgia's stellar track record in the postseason puts it as one of seven teams in the nation to appear in a regional for 23 or more straight years. Within that realm, Georgia is one of three Southeastern Conference teams to produce such success.

Georgia isn't just a staple in Regional fields, but also into the next round, appearing in 13 Super Regionals since 2005.

The pinnacle of college softball is in Oklahoma City, and Georgia made back-to-back showings at the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010, finishing as one of the last four teams standing in both. The Bulldogs returned in 2016 after knocking off back-to-back National Champion Florida in dramatic walk-off fashion in the Super Regional. After sweeping the NCAA Regional and Super Regional in Athens, the Bulldogs punched their ticket to OKC in 2018 for the fourth program appearance at the WCWS. The Bulldogs turned a rocky end of the 2021 season around and made a run to Oklahoma City as an unseeded team, shutting out No. 4 Florida on its home field in the Super Regional round.

The consistency that the Bulldogs have shown reaching postseason play has planted the program as one of the top teams in NCAA softball.

Jack Turner Stadium

JACK TURNER STADIUM

The Georgia softball team plays in a multi-million dollar softball stadium. The main grandstand holds approximately 1,400 fans while additional outfield seating was added in 2015. Jack Turner Stadium, named for the late Jack Turner, thanks in part to gifts from himself and his son Jimmy Turner, has been chosen to host 13 NCAA Regionals and five NCAA Super Regionals since the format began in 2006.

The facility recently underwent a $38.5 million upgrade including a brand new training facility complete with locker room, indoor hitting facility, weight room, team lounge and nutrition space, video room, athletic training room, and mud room for equipment. The coaching staff received updated offices while the press box also got an update.

Georgia's softball facility ranks among the nation's best and will continue to be an attractive site for NCAA postseason play for years to come.

JACK TURNER

Jack Turner was named to the University of Georgia Foundation Board of Trustees in 1999 where he served as a member of the Investment Committee. He graduated from the University of Georgia in 1953 with a Bachelor's of Business Administration in Finance and was a member of Chi Psi fraternity, the Air Force ROTC, and Gridiron. As an athlete, he was a letterman in both baseball and basketball.

Following graduation, he served as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force, and after serving his country, embarked on a professional career in the financial services industry. Jack was president and retired as chairman of the board of American Funds Distributors, a subsidiary of the American Funds Group, based in Los Angeles in 1995.

What followed could not be characterized as a "quiet retirement." Jack dedicated much of his retirement years to the University of Georgia. His service included: Director of the Georgia Student Educational Fund (the forerunner to today's William C. Hartman Fund); Executive Committee member and director of the National Alumni Association; Member on the board of the UGA Athletic Association; Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Finance Committee; Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Facilities Committee; Chairman of the Georgia Athletic Association Student Athletic Scholarship Endowment Fund (through which Jack has endowed several scholarships); Founding member and partner in the President's Club; Member of the Heritage Society.

In addition, Jack founded the Turner Family Foundation, a private organization that supports local charities. In 1999, he was honored by the National Football Hall of Fame for his outstanding support of amateur football, and in 2002 was part of the inaugural class of inductees to the UGA Athletic Association's "Circle of Honor," honoring his service to the organization. The Terry College of Business honored him in 2002 as a "Distinguished Alumni" for his longtime service to the school.

GEORGIA UNVEILS BRAND NEW SOFTBALL TRAINING FACILITY

The University of Georgia Athletic Association has officially unveiled its new $38.5 million softball training facility at Jack Turner Stadium in October 2024.

The new facility features more than 20,000 square feet of student-athlete development space, including a four-lane batting cage with a full practice turf infield, weight room, locker room, team lounge and nutrition space, video room, an athletic training room, as well as a mud room and equipment room.

"These facility upgrades further enhance the great tradition and success of Georgia Softball," J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks said. "Most importantly, this space will be crucial in nearly every phase of student-athlete development and well-being during their time at Georgia. That has been our top priority throughout this project, and we have accomplished that by creating an area that is unparalleled in collegiate softball."

"I'm very thankful for the support of our administration," head coach Tony Baldwin said. "This facility is best in class and it has enhanced our student-athlete experience in so many ways. From the state-of-the-art player development aspects to the amazing recovery features to time management to simply feeling like home, the facility is all about our student-athletes. We're thankful for all the players that have come before to help build this program and we're so happy our current and future Bulldogs will reap the benefits of their work while also continuing the proud tradition that is Georgia Softball."

The University of Georgia

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

"Something for everyone." That's one way to describe the academic, athletic, and social experience at the University of Georgia. UGA is a leader among public universities nationally with a breadth and diversity of degree programs that rival any institution of higher learning. Various degree programs such as education, business, international affairs, journalism, math and public administration rank among the best in the nation. With its top-notch facilities campus-wide, the University of Georgia is an ideal setting for anyone to pursue a world-class education.

The University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in the USA. On January 27, 1785--just two years after the Revolutionary War and still four years before George Washington's inauguration as our first President--the Georgia Legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia, making UGA the oldest chartered state university in the nation. More than 225 years later, Georgia still offers something for everyone.

THE CITY OF ATHENS

Universally known as one of the nation's premier college towns, Athens is the perfect marriage of campus and community. Broad Street is all that separates the University of Georgia's historic North Campus and a vibrant downtown community filled with restaurants and shopping. Athens has carved its own identity with the individualistic pursuits of a music scene that has turned local artists into worldwide superstars.

Athens' ever-thriving music scene fostered world-wide mega-bands such as R.E.M. and the B-52s. Historic venues such as the Georgia Theatre and the 40-Watt Club make Athens a must-stop for a wide variety of emerging and established stars from Taylor Swift to Snoop Dogg.

2026 Season Outlook

The 2025 season will be the 30th of Georgia softball in Athens and the fifth under the direction of head coach Tony Baldwin.

The Bulldogs enter another season of excitement with a balance of returning and new faces.

In the infield, Baldwin welcomes back senior Tyler Ellison and junior Emily Digby with transfers Bailey Lindemuth and Keirsten Roose primed for strong roles. Also returning, Tyah Charlton, Mollie Mitchell and Esther White are set to contribute. Bulldog freshmen Gabi Novickas, Brooke Smith and Katelin Smith will look to make an impact in the infield, as well, in their debut campaigns.

The outfield will be patrolled by senior Jaydyn Goodwin and junior transfer Delani Sullivan. Another newcomers include transfer Natalie Ray and freshman Natalie Donaldson.

Georgia returns senior catcher Marisa Miller while senior utlility Sarah Gordon can also offer her services.

Returning in the circle, senior Destin Howard and junior Randi Roelling will look to build on their campaigns from last season. Transfer sophomore pitchers Addisen Fisher and Maddie Johnson will make their Bulldogs debuts this season, and new freshmen pitchers Presley Harrison and Ada Little are set to contribute.

In support of Baldwin, JT D'Amico and Chelsea Wilkinson to as the associate head coach and assistant coach, respectively. Mike Davenport will also begin his second season as an assistant coach in Athens. More, Karly Heath remains as the program's next Player Development Coordinator.

2026 SCHEDULE

The season will beginning with 19th Annual Red & Black Showcase in Athens featuring Belmont, Fordham and Missouri State from Feb. 6-8. The following week, the Bulldogs will travel to Clearwater, Fla. for the Shriners Children's Clearwater Invitational to face, in order, Oklahoma State, Nebraska, NC State, UCF, Northwestern and Duke.

Georgia will then host Samford for the first midweek of the season on Feb. 18 before again playing host in the 23rd Annual Georgia Classic with Seton Hall, Virginia Tech and Utah State. Before the final tournament of the season, the 17th Annual Bulldog Classic from Feb. 27-March 1, the Bulldogs will take on regional rival Clemson on Feb. 25.

Southeastern Conference play will begin on March 6 and run through May 2. The regular-season conference schedule includes eight three-game series for each team for a total of 24 games. The schedule is subject to change, including the move of some conference series to conclude on Mondays.

Georgia's SEC schedule will open in Fayetteville against Arkansas from March 6-8.

The Bulldogs remaining conference away series include Kentucky (March 27-29), Texas A&M (April 2-4), and Oklahoma (April 24-26).

Georgia will welcome to the Jack Turner Stadium Mississippi State (March 20-22), Missouri (March 10-12), Texas (April 18-20), and Florida (Apr. 20-May 1).

The 2026 SEC Tournament is scheduled for May 5-9 in Lexington, Ky. Regional and Super Regionals take place on campus before the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City.

TONY BALDWIN

HEAD COACH

YEAR AT UGA	14th // Fifth as Head Coach
RECORD	165-76 (four seasons)
ALMA MATER	Butler, 1995

@ UGACOACHTONY

Tony Baldwin was announced the head coach of Georgia softball on June 21, 2021. He is the third head coach in the history of the program. Baldwin served on staff in Athens for nine total seasons prior to being promoted to head coach.

During the 2025 campaign, Baldwin led Georgia to another Super Regional appearance in Gainesville, Florida marking the third straight season. The Bulldogs peaked at No. 9 in the NFCA poll in Week 3. Georgia garnered a 7-16 record in Southeastern conference play and won 20+ games at home for the 18th-straight season. Dallis Goodnight took home Second-Team All-SEC honors, and the Bulldogs hit 54 home runs with a 96.7 fielding-percentage on the year. Georgia ended the season with a 35-23 record falling one win short of a trip back to the Women's College World Series.

The 2024 season saw the Bulldogs reach the Super Regional round of the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season and the second time in three seasons under Baldwin. Georgia's season saw the Dogs reach No. 3 in the country, the highest ranking since the 2011 season. The Dawgs concluded the season 43-19 and an even .500 in SEC play at 12-12. A trio of Dogs earned All-SEC honors with Sydney Kuma becoming the program's first-ever Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner. The offense finished eighth nationally in home runs per game and 14 in slugging.

Baldwin guided Georgia to its first appearance in the NCAA Super Regional with him at the helm in 2023. Georgia drew the 14-seed in the NCAA Tournament, powering its way through the Athens Regional en route to a Super Regional matchup at No. 3 Florida State. The Bulldogs concluded the season 42-15 with a 16-7 SEC record, good enough for a second-place finish in the league. The Dogs' 16 SEC wins were the most since 2018. Under Baldwin's guidance, Jayda Kearney (first team) and Sydney Kuma (third team) were named NFCA All-Americans. In total, six Bulldogs garnered All-SEC status in 2023, the most since seven were honored in 2016.

Once again, Georgia's offense shined in 2023 as UGA finished tops in the SEC in batting average (.318), home runs per game (1.61), slugging (.578), and doubles per game (1.4). The Dogs' slugging percentage finished second in the country only to Oklahoma while Georgia finished sixth in home runs per game.

In the offseason, Baldwin once again answered the call to serve on staff for the USA Softball Women's National Team. In July, the WNT traveled to Fingal-Dublin, Ireland for the Women's Softball World Cup qualifying round. The Eagles went undefeated en route to punching their ticket to the World Cup Finals held in Italy July 15-21, 2024. It was then on to Santiago, Chile for the 2023 Pan American Games in October-November. Once again, the USA was dominant, going 7-0 to capture the gold medal. The gold medal victory marked the 10th Pan American Games gold medal for the U.S. WNT while extending its overall record to 106-5.

In his first season at the helm of the program, Baldwin guided Georgia to a 43-18 record in 2022 and an even 12-12 SEC record. The 2022 season was the 18th 40-win season in the history of the program. The Bulldogs made their 20th-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, drawing the Durham Regional. Georgia ultimately fell to #12 Duke in game seven of the Regional after overcoming a game one loss and winning three-straight to force the winner-take-all contest. The season featured a 16-game win streak from Feb. 19 to March 12, tied for sixth-longest in program history. The Bulldogs concluded the season No. 22 in the NFCA Coaches poll, the 20th time the Bulldogs finished the season in the top 25.

Baldwin mentored junior Sara Mosley and senior Lacey Fincher to NFCA All-America honors in 2022. It was the first time Georgia had multiple All-Americans in the same season since 2018 (Cortni Emanuel, Brittany Gray, Alyssa DiCarlo). Mosley and Fincher joined Kearny, Kuma, and Sydney Chambley in earning NFCA

Southeast All-Region honors. Georgia also put four on the All-SEC teams in 2022.

Georgia's explosive offense reached new heights in 2022 as the Bulldogs broke the program record for single-season home runs, blasting 107 on the season. That number finished third in SEC single-season history. Six Bulldogs topped double-digit home runs led by Fincher's 19. As a team, Georgia ranked top 10 nationally in scoring (6.72 runs/game), home runs per game (1.75), slugging (.594), and on-base percentage (.408). The Dogs' .323 team batting average finished 11th best in the country. Fincher and Mosley each finished in the top 50 in the country in home runs.

Following the 2022 season in Athens, Baldwin joined the US Women's National Team as an assistant coach. Team USA won Gold at the World Games in Birmingham, going 5-0 and defeating Japan 3-2 in the Gold Medal game. Team USA outscored its opponents 31-4 en route to the title. It was Baldwin's second stint with Team USA as he served as an assistant coach for the U-19 Team in 2019.

After serving as a Georgia volunteer assistant from 2011-12, Tony Baldwin rejoined the Bulldog coaching staff as an assistant coach in June 2014 before being promoted to associate head coach shortly after the 2016 season.

Georgia's offense has found successful production since Baldwin's arrival.

The 2021 season saw the Bulldogs go on a remarkable run through the NCAA Tournament en route to Florida head coach Tim Walton and Tony Baldwin exchange lineups prior to game two of the 2021 NCAA Super Regional in Gainesville, Florida.

Georgia's fifth program appearance in the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City. Georgia began the season winning 21 of its first 23 games including a series victory over Missouri to open Southeastern Conference play. A tough SEC schedule resulted in a 7-17 record in league play. Georgia's schedule as a whole finished as the fifth strongest in the country in 2021. The regular season was highlighted by a midweek win over top-ranked and then-undefeated Oklahoma in Athens. Despite ending the regular season on a seven-game losing streak, the Bulldogs came out in the NCAA Tournament ready to roll. Georgia defeated Western Kentucky and No. 13 seed Duke in the Athens Regional to win a date with fourth-seeded Florida in Gainesville. Georgia went on to shut out the Gators in back-to-back games in the Super Regional to punch its ticket to OKC. The Bulldogs concluded the tournament scoring 34 runs while slugging 11 home runs in seven games.

A trio of underclassmen including sophomore Kuma (All-Newcomer Team) and freshmen outfielders Chambley and Kearney (All-Freshman Team) was honored by the SEC for their efforts in 2021. Fincher and redshirt-sophomore Jaiden Fields each earned nods from the NCFA as All-Region Team performers. As a team, Georgia concluded the season ranked 13th nationally with 1.46 home runs per game, knocking 83 total home runs.

In the abbreviated 2020 season, the Bulldogs hit .335, the third-best in the SEC, through 28 games. Freshman Kuma hit .438 on the season, one of the best in the league. Fellow rookie Mosley knocked in 31 runs with nine doubles in 2020. Despite the shortened season, Georgia was top-three in the SEC in multiple team categories including slugging and on-base percentages, runs, hits, RBI, home runs, doubles, triples, total bases, walks drawn, and stolen bases. Nationally, Georgia ranked top-10 in scoring (7.64 runs per game), slugging (.591), on-base percentage (.429), and walks (104). Georgia's .335 batting average finished 11th.

The 2019 season saw the end of Alyssa DiCarlo's career. Under Baldwin's mentorship, DiCarlo went down as one of the best hitters in Georgia softball history. DiCarlo shattered Georgia's career records for home runs, RBI, extra-base hits, and total bases while appearing in the top 10 in numerous other offensive categories. She earned All-America status for the second season in a row in 2019. DiCarlo was drafted as the fourth-overall pick in the NPF Draft to the Chicago Bandits. DiCarlo and freshman Fincher earned All-SEC honors for their efforts at the plate.

Baldwin coaching the Women's National Team at the 2023 Pan American Games in Santiago, Chile in late 2023.

U.S. Women's National Team (WNT) defeated Great Britain in Dublin, Ireland on July 15, 2023 in a 7-0 run-rule to punch its ticket to the World Cup Finals held in Italy July 15-21, 2024.

Baldwin during a game in Birmingham in the 2022 World Games.

Following the 2019 season, Baldwin had the honor of working with the USA Softball U-19 team over the summer as an assistant coach. The U-19 WNT brought home the bronze medal at the USA Softball International Cup. USA concluded its summer by walking off Japan to win the 2019 World Baseball Softball Confederation (WBSC) U-19 Women's Softball World Cup. With the win, Team USA became the first team in history to win three consecutive U-19 World Cup Titles and its seventh title overall.

The 2018 season was one of the best offensive seasons for Georgia. The Bulldogs posted the third-best batting average in the country with a .333 clip. It was the second-straight season the Bulldogs won the SEC team batting title. Georgia ranked fourth in the NCAA with a .526 slugging percentage and 10th with a .404 on-base clip. Many Bulldogs shined in 2018 at the plate including leadoff hitter Cortni Emanuel (.431 average) who ranked second in the nation with 91 hits. DiCarlo blasted 21 home runs to rank sixth nationally while driving in a seventh-best 67 runs. Both Emanuel and DiCarlo were top-25 finalists for the USA Softball Player of the Year award and each earned NFCA All-American status. Emanuel was also named the recipient of the New Balance/NFCA Golden Shoe Award, given to the most prolific base stealer in the country. Emanuel was the 23rd pick of the NPF Draft by the USSSA Pride, becoming the 13th Bulldog selected in the draft. The Bulldogs concluded the 2018 campaign by making their fourth program appearance at the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City.

The 2017 season saw the Bulldogs win the SEC team batting title with a .338 batting average, 22 points higher than second-place Tennessee. That figure ranked fifth-best in the country. Sisters Sydni and Cortni Emanuel concluded the season as top-four hitters in the conference, finishing with .436 and .426 batting averages respectively. The sisters' 2017 batting average rank fourth and sixth in Georgia's single-season top-10 list. Sydni became the latest ProDawg when she was drafted by the Akron Racers as the 16th-overall pick of the NPF Draft. Cortni was named an NFCA All-American for the second-straight season in 2017.

In 2016, Georgia had its second-best batting average in school history, hitting .342 with eight Bulldogs holding a .300 or better average on its way to the program's third Women's College World Series appearance. After a tough offseason of individual work with Baldwin, many individuals put up stellar numbers. Tina Iosefa led the nation while breaking the SEC record with 87 RBI during the season, earning her NFCA All-America honors. DiCarlo was named to the All-SEC First Team as a freshman after hitting nine of her 11 home runs against SEC opponents and notching 63 RBI on the year, the most of any freshman in the NCAA.

In his first season back in Athens, the Bulldog offense exploded, ranking 13th in the nation with a .343 batting average. Georgia finished 11th nationally with 7.21 runs per game and 18th with a .420 on-base percentage. Baldwin guided two NFCA All-Americans in Alex Hugo and Cortni Emanuel, as Hugo was first in the SEC and 12th in the NCAA with 22 home runs while Emanuel was eighth nationally in stolen bases and top-100 in batting average. Nine staples to the Bulldog lineup posted batting averages of .330 or higher at the end of the 2015 season. Once the season concluded, six Bulldog batters were named NFCA All-Region while four made it to an All-SEC Team.

Before returning to Athens, Baldwin was an assistant coach at North Carolina. Baldwin's primary responsibilities included developing the team's hitters and infielders. In 2014, Baldwin coached four .300 hitters and had three players hit double-digit home runs. Under Baldwin's guidance, three Tar Heels were named to the All-ACC Team, including one first-team selection and two second-team selections. In his first season, he helped nine Tar Heels finish the season batting over .300 while six had slugging percentages over .500.

Prior to his first stint at Georgia as volunteer coach, Baldwin spent 14 years coaching Division I baseball. Baldwin was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State from 2006-08. Baldwin's first recruiting class at Michigan State matriculated a Freshman All-American and multiple draft picks. His second recruiting class was ranked the top recruiting class in the Big Ten and was ranked top 50 in the country by Baseball America. His third recruiting class also produced a Freshman All-American and became the class with the most wins in school history.

Before Michigan State, Baldwin was the assistant head baseball coach at Dartmouth College from 2003-

05 after serving as the assistant coach from 1999-2003. At Dartmouth, he was the recruiting coordinator, travel manager, eligibility coordinator, and worked with fundraising and alumni relations. Baldwin was the hitting and fielding coach, coordinated team defense, and was the third base coach, helping the team to Dartmouth's first Red Rolfe Division Titles in 2000, 2001, and 2004.

Baldwin was the assistant coach at Butler University from 1996-99, and was the head coach of the Decatur Blues, of the Central Illinois Collegiate League, in 1999. At Butler, Baldwin was the hitting coach, coached the infielders and catchers, and coordinated team defense. He helped lead the team to three MCC titles (1996, 1998, and 1999), which were the first in the history of the program.

A native of Bloomington, Indiana, Baldwin graduated from Butler in 1995 with a degree in finance. He was a four-year starter at catcher for Butler. In 1994, he served as a team captain for the Bulldogs and earned All-MCC honors. He is a member of the 1990's All-Decade Team.

In addition to coaching, Baldwin served as the operations director at Camp Weequahic in Lakewood, Pennsylvania from 2009-12.

Baldwin and his wife Suzanne have four children: Ella, Abby, Brady, and Katie.

J.T. D'AMICO

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

YEAR AT UGA	Fifth Season
DUTIES	Defense
ALMA MATER	Grand Canyon

@ SYD_FINCH

J.T. D'Amico joined Tony Baldwin's staff prior to the 2022 campaign in Athens. The 2026 campaign will be the fifth season with D'Amico heading up defensive coaching efforts for the Bulldogs.

Since D'Amico's arrival in Athens, Georgia has raised its fielding percentage from .955 in 2021 to .976 following the 2024 season and another strong .967-clip during the 2025 season.

Also in 2025, under D'Amico's guidance, four Bulldogs recorded perfect fielding percentages, and the team converted 25 double-plays. More, Georgia co-led the conference in caught stolen bases with 12 under his leadership.

Georgia's fielding percentage of .976 in 2024 was the second-best in program history and the best since the Bulldogs fielded .981 in 2009. The mark finished 13th nationally and third in the SEC. Second baseman Sydney Kuma solidified her elite status in her final season, earning the Rawlings Gold Glove Award, bestowed upon the nation's top defensive players. Kuma became the first Georgia Bulldog to earn the award. In her final season in the Red and Black, Kuma fielded a career-best .974. She raised her fielding percentage year-over-year under D'Amico's guidance.

Under D'Amico's tutelage, Georgia's defense continued to improve in 2023 as the Bulldogs recorded a .972 fielding percentage, committing six fewer errors from the previous season. It was Georgia's highest fielding clip since 2011 (.972). Kuma put together a tremendous 2023 season, not only at the plate, but also in the field. Kuma, an NFCA Third Team All-American, was recognized as the top second baseman in the SEC, earning a spot on the SEC All-Defensive Team. She recorded a .971 fielding percentage, committing only six errors on the middle infield.

In his first season in Athens, Georgia's defense improved 14 points from the previous year, rising to .969 on the season. UGA climbed from 12th in the SEC to sixth in a single year. The Bulldogs committed 23 less errors in 2022 compared to the 2021 campaign. A notable improvement on the infield was All-SEC performer Kuma who lowered her errors from 14 in 2021 to just five in 2022, an improvement of 50 points in her fielding percentage.

D'Amico came to Athens with a resume including a 2009 NCAA National Championship, six Women's College World Series appearances, an NPF Cowles Cup Championship, five Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year awards, and five Pac-12 All-Defensive Team members.

D'Amico had spent the previous 13 seasons on staff at Washington as the Huskies' defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator. He coached three-time Defensive Player of the Year Sis Bates and Olympians Jenn Salling (Canada) and Ali Aguilar (USA). As a team, Washington committed fewer than 45 errors six times including a program record 24 in 2021, six fewer than the previous record. The Huskies finished first or second in fielding percentage in the Pac-12 eight times in D'Amico's tenure, finishing second in the nation in 2013.

He also served as the recruiting coordinator for the Huskies putting together top recruiting classes. The 2019 class included National Gatorade Player of the Year, and Georgia native, Kelley Lynch from East Coweta High School. The UW 2021 recruiting class included arguably two of the top four prospects in the class by most national services.

ADDITIONAL COACHING EXPERIENCE
Washington, 2009-21
USSSA Pride, 2013
Eastlake HS baseball, 1998-2008

In 2013, D'Amico added head coach of the USSSA Pride of the National Pro Fastpitch league to his resume, guiding the Pride to the NPF Cowles Cup Championship that season. The Pride featured NPF Defensive Player of the Year Ashley Charters that season.

Prior to Washington, he was the head baseball coach at Eastlake High School from 1998-2008. During his time as the head baseball coach at Eastlake, 10 of his players were drafted professionally while over 20 went on to play at the collegiate level. Three of his former players have reached the major leagues.

He also spent time as an associate scout with the Atlanta Braves for several years during his time at Eastlake.

D'Amico earned his bachelor of science degree in Applied Management from Grand Canyon University.

His younger brother Jeff was drafted in the second round of the 1993 Major League Baseball Draft. He made his MLB debut with the Kansas City Royals in 2000. He is now a golf pro in the Seattle area.

CHELSEA WILKINSON

ASSISTANT COACH

YEAR AT UGA	Fifth Season
DUTIES	Pitching
ALMA MATER	Georgia, 2016

@ CHELSW20

Bulldog great Chelsea Wilkinson made her return to Athens, joining Tony Baldwin's staff prior to the 2022 season. The 2026 season will be the fifth with Wilkinson on staff.

During the 2025 campaign, Wilkinson oversaw the performance and development of a five-woman pitching staff of Backes, Gibson, Howard, Roelling and Troutt. Backes led in the circle with 15 wins holding a 3.54 ERA. Gibson paced the pitchers with a 3.05 ERA followed by Roelling with a 3.28 mark. In all, Wilkinson helped all Georgia pitchers to 306 strikeouts and five saves.

Wilkinson mentored the trio of Shelby Walters, Madison Kerpics, and Lilli Backes in the 2024 season. In her first season in Athens, Backes made an immediate impact, making 46 appearances, pitching 183 innings and going the distance 10 times. She concluded the season with a 2.68 ERA, 18 victories, and six saves with 134 strikeouts.

The 2023 season saw Georgia field All-SEC pitchers Shelby Walters and Madison Kerpics in the circle. The pair became the first Bulldog pitchers to earn all-conference honors in the same season in program history. Under Wilkinson's guidance, Georgia cut its staff ERA by 1.62 points, finishing fifth in the SEC with a 2.43 ERA on the season. The Dogs' sliced their conference ERA to 2.82, a 2.87-point improvement from the previous season. Walters led the staff with a 1.72 ERA and seven saves with 18 wins. Paired with Kerpics' 19 wins and 135 strikeouts, the pair helped guide the Bulldogs to 42 wins and a Super Regional berth.

Georgia combined for three no-hitters in 2023, the most in a single season since 2018. Walters pitched a six-inning no-no against Samford on March 4. Later that month, Walters no-hit Mississippi State, Georgia's first SEC no-hitter since 2009. Four Bulldogs combined to no-hit North Carolina Central in the opening game of the NCAA Athens Regional, Georgia's first NCAA Tournament no-hitter since 2014 and the fourth in the program's postseason history. Walters and Kerpics made program history in April, tossing back-to-back one-hitters against South Carolina, the first time ever accomplishing the feat against an SEC opponent.

Georgia concluded the 2022 season with a 4.05 team ERA, led by a breakout season from Madison Kerpics. The sophomore finished the season with 20 wins, four saves, a 3.09 ERA, and 187 strikeouts. Kerpics improved from just three wins in 15 appearances as a freshman.

Freshman Kylie Macy provided a perfect game against Bryant on Feb. 25 to highlight the 2022 season, the 11th perfect game in Georgia history and the first since 2016 when Wilkinson was part of perfection against Georgia Tech.

Wilkinson returned to Athens following a stint at NC State from 2019-21.

In her first season in Raleigh, Wilkinson helped lead NC State to 31 wins in the regular season and reach the ACC Championship semifinal for the first time since 2013.

Under Wilkinson's tutelage, Sydney Nester was one of only three ACC pitchers to reach 10 wins in the shortened 2020 season and was ranked a top-40 pitcher by D1Softball. Sam Gress became only the second freshman pitcher in program-history to throw a no-hitter, doing so in five innings against North Carolina A&T that same season. In 2021, Nester (102) and Abby Trahan (98) finished 11th and 12th respectively, in the ACC in strikeouts. Trahan was responsible for 12 of the Pack's 26 wins.

Nester concluded her Wolf Pack career top 10 in several career categories including strikeouts per seven innings (7.06), wins (31), total strikeouts (344), opponent batting average (.227) and ERA (3.32).

Prior to NC State, she spent one season at South Carolina as a graduate assistant, helping the Gamecocks clinch their first NCAA Super Regional appearance since 2007.

Wilkinson was a star pitcher for the Bulldogs for four seasons from 2013-16.

Wilkinson's name can be found scattered all over the Georgia record books. She earned NFCA All-America status in 2014, was a three-time All-Southeast Region honoree, and was a four-time All-SEC performer. She was named the MVP of the SEC Tournament after guiding the Bulldogs to their lone tournament title in 2014 in Columbia, South Carolina.

She finished her player career ranked in top 10 categories including wins (97), appearances (173), games started (136), complete games (74), shutouts (35.5), saves (6), innings pitched (839.2), and strikeouts (897).

As a senior in 2016, Wilkinson led the Bulldogs to the Women's College World Series and was the 14th overall pick in the 2016 National Pro Fastpitch Draft.

She holds a Bachelor's degree in Public Heath, with a concentration in health promotion from the University of Georgia. Wilkinson earned her Masters in Public Health in 2019.

Chelsea married former Georgia Bulldog pitcher Robert Tyler in Oct. 2019. He was a first round draft pick of the Colorado Rockies in 2016 and was a member of the 2015 USA Baseball Collegiate National Team. In 2025, Chelsea and Robert welcomed their first child, Bennett.

MIKE DAVENPORT

ASSISTANT COACH

YEAR AT UGA	Second Season
DUTIES	Offense/Catchers
ALMA MATER	Florida, 1994 North Georgia, 1998

@ MIKEDAV017

Mike Davenport joined Tony Baldwin's staff as an assistant coach in August 2024. Davenport comes to Athens from North Georgia, where he was the head coach for 24 seasons. He guided the Nighthawks to DII national championships in 2015 and 2023, accumulating over a thousand victories in his tenure at UNG. 2026 marks his second full season on staff.

During the 2025 season, Davenport guided the Georgia offense to 300 runs and 276 RBIs off 433 hits with 54 home runs, 68 doubles and 12 triples. More, he helped in the development of catchers Lyndi Rae Davis, Sarah Gordon and Marisa Miller.

His head coaching record is an astounding 1,094-280 (.796), and he is a member of the Georgia Dugout Club Softball Hall of Fame (January 2020). He's coached numerous All-Americans, including two National Players of the Year in Courtney Poole (2015) and Kylee Smith (2018).

A 10-time Peach Belt Conference Coach of the Year, Davenport built a culture of championships at North Georgia, winning 17 conference regular season titles, 15 conference tournaments, nine NCAA Southeast Region Championships, and two NCAA DII National Championships. He established UNG as a powerhouse in NCAA Division II softball, taking North Georgia to three consecutive Division II Championship appearances twice from 2009-11 and again in 2021-23.

Davenport helped guide the program to two National Championships during his tenure, the first in 2015, as that team would bring the University of North Georgia its first National Championship in school history on May 25, 2015, in Oklahoma City. In 2023, Davenport helped return UNG to the mountain top, giving the program its second 60-win season, breaking the program record for wins in a season with a 64-7 record, as the Nighthawks would win their second National Title in Chattanooga, Tennessee on May 31, 2023.

After winning the 2015 national championship in Oklahoma City, Davenport returned to the diamond almost immediately, serving as the head coach of the USSSA Florida Pride of the National Pro Fastpitch league. He led the Pride to an NPF regular-season title and an appearance in the Cowles Cup series.

In 2010, Davenport led North Georgia to a 51-game winning streak, the second longest in NCAA history. The then-Saints entered the World Series with a perfect record of 50-0 that season. UNG has reached perfection in conference play twice under Davenport's guidance, posting 20-0 records in 2003 and 2010.

Davenport began his career at North Georgia with the women's basketball team in 1996 as an assistant coach and served in that role until 2000, when he took over as head softball coach in August. He served in that role as well as an instructor in the Health and Physical Education Department since. While with the North Georgia women's basketball team, he helped guide the squad to three conference titles and three NAIA National Tournament appearances.

While growing up in central Illinois, he played basketball and baseball at Peoria's Richwoods High School before moving to Central Oklahoma and graduating from Guthrie High School in Guthrie, Oklahoma. After playing one year of junior college baseball, he focused his attention on coaching and joined the rich tradition of Cowboy Baseball at Oklahoma State University under head coach Gary Ward as a student-assistant. The opportunity to coach led him to Gainesville, Florida, where he spent three years as an assistant baseball coach at Santa Fe Community College under head coach Harry Tholen.

The DuQuoin, Illinois native is a 1994 graduate of the University of Florida with a Bachelor of Science in Recreation and a 1998 grad of North Georgia, where he earned his Master of Education.

Davenport and his wife, the former Melanie Ralston of Gainesville, reside in Dahlonega and are the proud parents of one daughter, Isabel, and one son, Harper.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR
KARLY HEATH

Karly Heath joined Tony Baldwin's staff as the Player Development Coordinator ahead of the 2025 season.

Heath comes to Georgia following a stint as the graduate assistant at Louisiana on Gerry Glasco's staff last season. Heath was an All-American pitcher and outfielder at Louisiana from 2021-2023.

Heath's senior season in 2023 saw the North Augusta native named NFCA All-America Second Team, NFCA All-Central Region First Team, Sun Belt Conference Female Student-Athlete of the Year, Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year, All-Sun Belt Team, Louisiana Sports Writers Association Hitter of the Year, and All-Louisiana First Team. At the plate, she hit .351 and slugged 16 homers, driving in 47 runs with a .702 slugging percentage. She made 17 appearances in the circle, registering a 5-1 record and 2.18 ERA in 41.2 innings of work.

Heath began her collegiate career at South Carolina in 2019 and transferred to ULL following the 2020 shutdown. Heath concluded her career as a .315 hitter, knocking 43 home runs with 125 RBI. Heath also pitched 163 career innings with 147 strikeouts, putting together a career 20-1 record in 64 appearances.

Heath hails from North Augusta, South Carolina, where she graduated from North Augusta High School. She graduated from Louisiana in May 2023 with her degree in Sport Management. She's currently pursuing her MBA from ULL and will complete her Master's online in Spring 2025.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
ROBIN CONFER

Robin Confer joined the Georgia softball staff prior to the 2019 season as the program's director of operations. This is Confer's second stint in Athens and with the Georgia Athletic Association. She first wore the Red & Black for nine seasons as an assistant soccer coach.

Prior to her current role, Confer was the head women's soccer coach from 2014-18 at North Florida. The 2017 season marked the program's best record since the 2011 season as UNF posted a 9-6-1 mark. During her tenure, Confer guided the Ospreys to four-consecutive ASUN Conference Tournament appearances, including the program's first home postseason contest since 2010 in her first year.

Confer went to UNF following a nine-year stint as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Georgia. During her tenure in Athens, Confer helped develop a potent offensive attack that consistently outscored its opponents and produced players that broke a number of Bulldog offensive records. In addition, she was able to attract top-tier recruits to UGA resulting in nationally-ranked recruiting classes including a No. 12 rank for the 2013 class.

Prior to her time at UGA, Confer served as an assistant coach at Florida State helping guide the Seminoles to a 29-13-4 record during her tenure including the program's first College Cup appearance in 2003. Confer's coaching career also includes stops as an assistant coach at Mississippi State and Texas A&M. Her first collegiate coaching experience came as a volunteer assistant under legendary coach Anson Dorrance at her alma mater, North Carolina.

The 1997 National Player of the Year, Confer was a part of three national championships as a record-setting forward at the University of North Carolina. A four-year starter for the Tar Heels (1994-97), Confer helped UNC to national championships in 1994, 1996, and 1997. She was named National Player of the Year by Soccer News and SoccerBuzz as a senior, while also garnering Most Valuable Offensive Player of the NCAA Final Four in 1997. A first-team All American, Confer was a finalist for the Hermann Award, recognizing the nation's top collegiate soccer athlete. She finished her Carolina career ranked among the all-time scoring leaders finishing with 77 goals and 55 assists. Confer played in every game of her collegiate career and still holds an NCAA record having played in 107 games. Confer was also named to the Atlantic Coast Conference's (ACC) 50th Anniversary Women's Soccer team recognizing the league's Top 50 players. A former captain of the U.S. U-20 Youth National team, she made her Women's National Team debut on Jan. 18, 1996, against Ukraine and was a member of the pool from 1996-99, earning eight caps and one goal.

Confer earned her bachelor's degree in Exercise and Sports Science from North Carolina in 1998.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA PRESIDENT
JERE W. MOREHEAD

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia President on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, UGA has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and has completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally during President Morehead's tenure, the University completed the most successful capital campaign in its history and established the UGA Innovation District, through which students and faculty partner with industry leaders to create products and enterprises that strengthen Georgia's economy. UGA has increased its research expenditures by more than 50% over the past decade and has been ranked first or second in the U.S. for research-based products reaching the marketplace for the past seven years.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. Demand for a UGA education has more than doubled during the past decade, with a record 43,000 applications submitted for a spot in the incoming Class of 2027.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia for more than 35 years in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming President, he was Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative assignments, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal.

President Morehead currently serves as Co-Chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Research Alliance, Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and Emory University Candler School of Theology.

He is Chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Board of Directors and a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Committee and NCAA Board of Governors. He previously served as President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Chair of the SEC Executive Committee and as a member of the NCAA's Presidential Forum; Working Group on Name, Image, and Likeness; and Federal and State Legislation Working Group. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation Board of Trustees.

In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education. He has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence, the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also earned the UGA School of Law's premier honor for alumni, the Distinguished Service Scroll Award.

President Morehead holds a bachelor's degree from Georgia State University and a law degree from the University of Georgia.

J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
JOSH BROOKS

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks continues to lead the University of Georgia Athletic Association through historic success.

In 2025, Georgia won four team national championships, tying a school record for the most titles in a single athletics season. The Bulldogs also earned the highest cumulative GPA in program history with a 3.26 during the 2024-25 academic campaign, setting a new school record once again.

Those accomplishments highlight the University's position as an academic and athletic powerhouse and underscore the achievements of the Athletic Association during Brooks' five-year tenure as athletic director.

Under his leadership, the Bulldogs have earned seven team national championships, 12 SEC crowns and 33 individual national titles across 21 sports. This fall, Georgia football earned a victory in the SEC championship game in its unprecedented fifth-straight appearance. The Bulldogs have won the title in three of the last five seasons and in back-to-back years for the first time since 1980.

Additional highlights include football national championships in 2021 and 2022, six conference championships, a national indoor crown and a NCAA title for women's tennis. Soccer has made a program-record four-straight NCAA tournament appearances and women's track won the program's first-ever outdoor title with a successful run in 2025. Equestrian also earned national titles in 2021 and 2025.

Georgia's No. 7 ranking in the 2023 LEARFIELD Directors Cup was the program's highest mark in 18 years, as Brooks become a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year honor.

For all his success, Brooks has also become a leading voice in college athletics. He serves on the SEC Executive Committee, is vice chair of the NCAA Football Oversight Committee and is chair of the NCAA Football Practice and Playing Seasons Committee.

With a focus on maintaining the University's mission of excellence in teaching and learning, Bulldog student-athletes have excelled academically. Recently, UGA swimmers Abby McCulloh (2025) and Callie Dickinson (2023) garnered the prestigious H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award – the highest honor earned by a student-athlete in the SEC. Women's tennis star Dasha Vidmanova – only the third female tennis player to win the NCAA's triple crown – was named the 2025 recipient of the Honda Award and was the Roy F. Kramer SEC Female Athlete of the Year.

From academic and athletic success to historic fundraising and a multitude of facility projects, Brooks has continued to sustain Georgia's standing as a national powerhouse. The Georgia Bulldog Club set new fundraising records in each of the last three years with $86.4 million raised in 2022, $102 million in 2023 and $113 million in 2024.

Brooks has overseen substantial facility upgrades that include the brand-new Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Courts, improvements to the south side of Sanford Stadium, a $45 million renovation to Foley Field, a $38 million upgrade to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium, a new $1.8 million men's and women's basketball weight room as well as expansive updates to Stegeman Coliseum and a renovation project in the Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall.

Georgia also built a new, state-of-the-art track and field locker room and a one-of-a-kind track facility off South Milledge Avenue is nearing completion.

While facility upgrades have been at the forefront, Georgia's emphasis on Name, Image, and Likeness has further enhanced its commitment to the student-athlete experience. Georgia Athletics was one of the first departments tEverton6
o announce a comprehensive NIL program, which provides wide-ranging education, multi-media management tools and brand-building training. The Bulldogs became one of the first schools to build an in-house NIL department with an Athlete Manager to help student-athletes navigate this space.

Under his guidance, Georgia re-branded the mental health and performance department, bringing in a new full-time director and an additional clinical counselor as well as adding sports psychology services for every team.

Before returning to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics, Brooks served as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisiana Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. He also served in capacities as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14) in his previous stint at UGA.

A native of Hammond, La., Brooks also served as director of football operations at the University of Louisiana-Monroe beginning in 2004. He gained experience as a student at Louisiana State University, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach.

Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012.

He and his wife Lillie have become a vital part of the Athens community. On January 20, 2021, just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based

GEORGIA CIRCLE OF HONOR

2017	Nicole Barber
2021	Kim Wendland

THE CIRCLE OF HONOR

NICOLE BARBER was Georgia softball's first Circle of Honor inductee, the highest honor bestowed upon a student-athlete at Georgia. Barber was the Bulldogs' centerfielder from 2001-04. She still holds the NCAA record with 257 career stolen bases including swiping 73-consecutive bags, also an NCAA record. Her 379 career hits is an SEC record while ranking in the top 10 in batting average, triples, runs, and fielding percentage as a centerfielder. She was three-time All-American and four-time All-SEC honoree for Georgia. Barber played in 278 games of her career, going 204-74 as a Bulldog with 70 SEC wins.

KIM WENDLAND won All-America honors in each of her last three years as a Bulldog (2003-05). She remains one of just four players in UGA history to earn such an honor three times. She's also the only player in program history to earn two outstanding honors: SEC Player of the Year and first-team All-SEC four consecutive years. Wendland's 313 career hits, 233 runs batted in, and 64 doubles still rank among the top five in school history. Her 1,403 putouts at first base rank second in program history. As a freshman in 2002, Wendland helped lead Georgia to its first-ever NCAA Regional.

KASI CARROLL

Kasi Carroll is Georgia softball's lone multi-time CoSIDA First Team Academic All-America award winner. Carroll also earned Academic All-District three times and is softball's lone Joel Eaves Award winner, given the male and female student-athletes with the highest GPA upon entering the fall semester of his or her senior year, based on academic hour rather than eligibility. Additionally, a student-athlete must have earned at least two varsity letters to be eligible for the award. She was also a 2006 All-SEC performer in the circle.

2003 SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

The 2003 softball season was one of great accomplishments for the Georgia softball team; things the previous six Georgia teams were never able to do- such as winning the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division and the SEC Title. And for a program that's leadership is just in its third season, winning the SEC is quite a feat.

The season ended with a 57-14 record and a second consecutive berth in an NCAA Regional. In the course of the season, the 2003 Bulldogs shattered the record books and brought home the program's first ever top-10 ranking.

Georgia's players also felt the fruits of success as they captured multiple awards throughout the season. Michelle Green and Nicole Barber were named to the NFCA All- America Second team, marking just the third and fourth times that a Georgia player has made an All-America team. In SEC postseason awards, three Bulldogs- Green, Barber, and Kim Wendland- made first team All-SEC, while Ashley Godfrey was named to the Second All-SEC team. Green also received SEC Pitcher of the Year while Harris-Champer was named SEC Coach of the Year.

Assistant Coaches: Sharon Perkins, Shaunte Fremin

The Bulldogs still qualified for an NCAA regional after struggling in the SEC tournament, and seemed a lock for a No. 1 seed as the SEC regular season champions. But on selection day, Georgia received a No. 2 seed in the Fresno State Regional where UCLA would be the No. 1 seed. The Bulldogs won their first game ever over Long Island University to advance to the second day where they face Michigan State. Georgia led 3-2 over the Spartans in the top of the seventh, but Michigan State prevailed with two runs to take the 4-3 lead and win. Georgia would win its first game in the loser's bracket over Long Beach State, but fell to Fresno State on Saturday to end its season.

By the time the season ended, two NCAA records, four SEC records, and 35 Georgia records fell, while the Bulldogs tied another SEC record and 16 more school records.

The 2003 season marked many firsts for Georgia and every player on the roster, from seniors Michelle Tyree, Lacey Gardner, and Amy Brannan to newcomers Courtney Knight, Jade Jarvis, and Ashley Godfrey, were integral in success of the 2003 team. The team set goals to win the SEC, make NCAA Regionals, and go to the Women's College World Series, and the 2003 Bulldogs satisfied two out of three of those goals.

2005 SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

The Georgia softball team continued its trend of rewriting record books in 2005 by earning its second Southeastern Conference championship in three seasons under the direction of head coach Lu Harris-Champer.

The Bulldogs clinched their first NCAA Regional and fell one game shy of earning their first appearance in the Women's College World Series after dropping the final game of a three-game Super Regional set with the UCLA Bruins in Los Angeles.

Georgia was picked to win the SEC in the coaches' preseason poll and did not disappoint earning wins in 22 out of its first 23 conference games. The Bulldogs 26 wins in SEC play tied them for the second-most wins in conference history. Georgia clinched all 10 of its SEC series and concluded the season with the sixth-highest team batting average (.317) in the nation.

Michelle Green and Kasi Carroll proved to be a formidable 1-2 punch for Georgia in 2005 after hurling nearly three-fourths of the overall innings in the circle. Green concluded her senior season with a 27-4 record with a 1.35 ERA and 272 strikeouts in 187.1 innings of work. Carroll (17-4, 2.13) started 14 games in the circle for Georgia in 2005 and tied for the third-most saves (7) in the nation after appearing in 19 games in relief.

Offensively, the Bulldogs paced the SEC with a .317 team batting average. Kim Wendland concluded her senior campaign with a .392 batting average with 12 doubles, 15 home runs, and 54 RBI. Megan McAllister set the school-record for home runs in a season after launching 16. Courtney Knight also sported a .372 batting average with 11 doubles, four triples, four home runs and 40 RBI.

Green and Wendland were named Louisville Slugger/NFCA and Easton All-Americans at the conclusion of the 2005 season. Wendland became the first player in Georgia softball history to earn SEC Player of the Year honors, while Green notched her second SEC Pitcher of the Year award after sharing the honor with Tennessee's Monica Abbott. Harris-Champer tallied her second SEC Coach of the Year honor. Wendland, Green, and McAllister were all named to the All-SEC First Team, while Doucette and Knight were selected to the All-SEC Second Team. Doucette and freshman Katie Vickers were named to the All-SEC Freshman team as well.

The senior trio of Green, Lewis and Wendland concluded their careers as the most successful senior class in Georgia history, posting a four-year record of 226-63 (.782). The 2005 senior class captured SEC Championships in 2003 and 2005, and earned four consecutive NCAA regional appearances.

2014 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

The Georgia softball team continued its tradition of success in 2014, advancing to the Super Regional round of the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in the last seven years. On the way to its Super Regional appearance, the Bulldogs made history, taking home the program's first ever Southeastern Conference Tournament title over three unforgettable nights in Columbia, South Carolina.

Georgia finished the season with a 49-15 record that included a 15-9 mark in SEC play. The Bulldogs also had 13 wins over ranked teams, including six wins over teams that were ranked in the top 10. For their efforts over the regular season and the SEC Tournament, the Bulldogs were selected at the No. 4 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament.

After posting a 15-9 mark in SEC play, which tied for the third-best record among league schools, Georgia was awarded the No. 5 seed in the SEC Tournament. The Bulldogs had the daunting task of facing fifth-ranked Florida and sixth-ranked Alabama to get to the title game. Georgia was up to the task, posting a 2-0 shutout win over Florida before handing Alabama a 5-3 loss. The Bulldogs would face Kentucky for the fourth time in a week for an SEC Tournament title, guaranteeing a first ever winner. As it had for much of the season, Georgia relied on the talented right arm of sophomore Chelsea Wilkinson and timely hitting by a vaunted lineup. Wilkinson shut down the Wildcat offense, carrying a one-hitter into the seventh inning and allowing just two runs on three hits and struck out nine batters in the complete-game performance. Geri Ann Glasco provided the big hits for Georgia, going 3-for-4 with a home run, a run scored and two RBI. When the final out was recorded, the Bulldogs were the SEC Tournament Champions for the first time in school history. Following the win, Georgia had four players named to the SEC All-Tournament Team: Wilkinson, Paige Wilson, Glasco and Alex Hugo. Wilkinson, who went 3-0 during the tournament was named the 2014 SEC Tournament MVP.

Along with the team accomplishments, Georgia had three First Team All-SEC selections (Hugo, Wilson and Wilkinson), four SEC All-Tournament selections (Glasco, Hugo, Wilson and Wilkinson), seven NFCA All-Region selections (Sam LaZear, Anna Swafford, Tina Iosefa, Glasco, Hugo, Wilson, Wilkinson) and two NFCA All-Americans (Hugo and Wilkinson). The seven NFCA All-Region honors was a program best and the most by an SEC team that season, the three First Team All-SEC selections were the most first team honorees since the 2010 season and Hugo's All-American selection marked the first time since 2009 that a Bulldog had been named a First Team All-American.

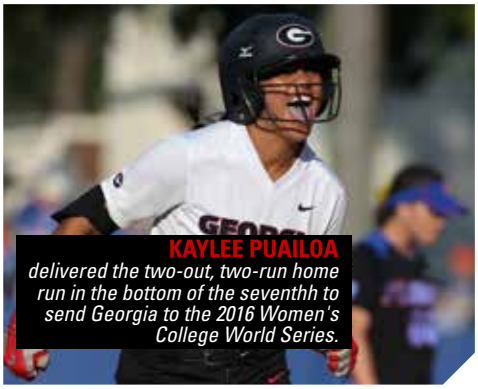
TAYLOR SCHLOPY
2009 WCWS All-Tournament Team

ALISA GOLER
2009 WCWS All-Tournament Team

The 2016 team walked off at back-to-back Champion #1 Florida to punch its ticket to the WCWS.

Georgia softball made its fourth trip to Oklahoma City in 2018. The season prior, Georgia had finished last in the SEC and didn't qualify for the conference tournament.

The unseeded 2021 WCWS team swept its way to OKC, taking down #13 Duke twice and shutting out #4 Florida in back-to-back games on the road in the Supers.



KAYLEE PUAILOA
delivered the two-out, two-run home run in the bottom of the seventh to send Georgia to the 2016 Women's College World Series.

ALYSSA DICARLO
hit .750 with five home runs in the 2018 NCAA Tournament run.

MARY WILSON AVANT
shut out #4 Florida in back-to-back games of the 2021 Super Regional.

2009 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES
FINAL FOUR

The Georgia Bulldogs finished the 2009 season with a 47-12 overall record, made the school's eighth-consecutive NCAA Championship appearance and advanced to the program's first-ever Women's College World Series. Georgia, the Easton Sports, Inc., Team of the Year, reached the final four of the WCWS and was the only team to defeat eventual national champion Washington at the event.

In both the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) final poll and the ESPN.com/USA Softball final poll, the Bulldogs ranked fourth behind national champion Washington, national runner-up Florida and Alabama. The ranking of fourth is the highest-ever for Georgia passing the program's previous best of fifth during middle of the 2004 season.

The Bulldogs were the nation's youngest team in 2009 with 90-percent underclassman but still finished the year with NCAA statistics rankings of first in fielding percentage (.981), second in slugging percentage (.574), fourth in home runs per game (1.44), sixth in scoring (6.32 runs per game) and 10th in batting average (.319). Among the SEC, where Georgia finished second in the Eastern Division and third overall with a record of 18-7, the Bulldogs set a new league record for team slugging percentage and would have set a new home run record with 85 long balls except for Florida's 86 that season.

In the Georgia record books, several team and individual records were broken in 2009. As a team, the Bulldogs established new single-season records for home runs, slugging percentage, on-base percentage and fielding percentage. They also tied the school record for sacrifice flies (23). Individually, sophomore Alisa Goler climbed to the top of multiple categories. Both Goler's RBI and slugging percentage totals established new SEC records, and her slugging percentage was the best mark in the nation. Goler's 24 home runs were just one shy of the SEC record set by Alabama's Kelly Kretschman in 1998. Right behind Goler's charge into the record books was fellow sophomore Taylor Schlopy. If not for Goler, Schlopy would have set new Georgia records for slugging (.819) and on-base percentage (.550). Schlopy led the team in runs scored with 71, which tied for the third-best total in school history, and she also contributed 15 home runs and 47 RBI. Her 15 long balls rank tied fourth most in UGA history. Both Goler, a USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year top 10 finalist, and Schlopy, who was among 41 athletes chosen to attend the USA Softball Women's National Team selection camp, were named first-team All-America by both the NFCA and Easton.

FINAL FOUR

The Georgia Bulldogs finished the 2010 season with a 50-13 overall record, made the school's ninth-consecutive NCAA Division I Softball Championship appearance and advanced to the Women's College World Series for a second-straight season. At the WCWS, Georgia advanced to be one of the final four remaining teams and is the only program to achieve that feat in both 2009 and 2010.

In the final rankings of the 2010 season, the Bulldogs were ranked No. 3 in the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) final poll and No. 4 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball final poll. The No. 3 ranking is the program's highest-ever ranking as the Bulldogs trailed only national champion UCLA and national runner-up Arizona. Georgia matched its previous-best No. 4 ranking in the USA Softball poll where the Bulldogs were ranked behind UCLA, Arizona and Tennessee.

Georgia's 2010 run to the WCWS included going 3-0 as host to the NCAA Athens Regional against Elon, Florida State, and Radford and then sweeping the NCAA Athens Super Regional against California.

In Southeastern Conference play, UGA went 18-8 to finish second in the Eastern Division led by All-SEC performances from juniors Alisa Goler, Taylor Schlopy, Megan Wiggins, and Brianna Hesson. Goler, Schlopy and Wiggins earned First Team honors while Wiggins and Hesson were named to the All-Defensive team in left field and at first base, respectively.

Goler and Schlopy went on to garner All-America honors as both were named to the Louisville Slugger/NFCA Second Team. Schlopy was also named to the ESPN.com All-America Team.

In the UGA record books, several records fell as the Bulldogs established new single-season school records for home runs (99), runs (422), doubles (102), RBI (380), total bases (944), walks (231), slugging percentage (.578) and on-base percentage (.413).

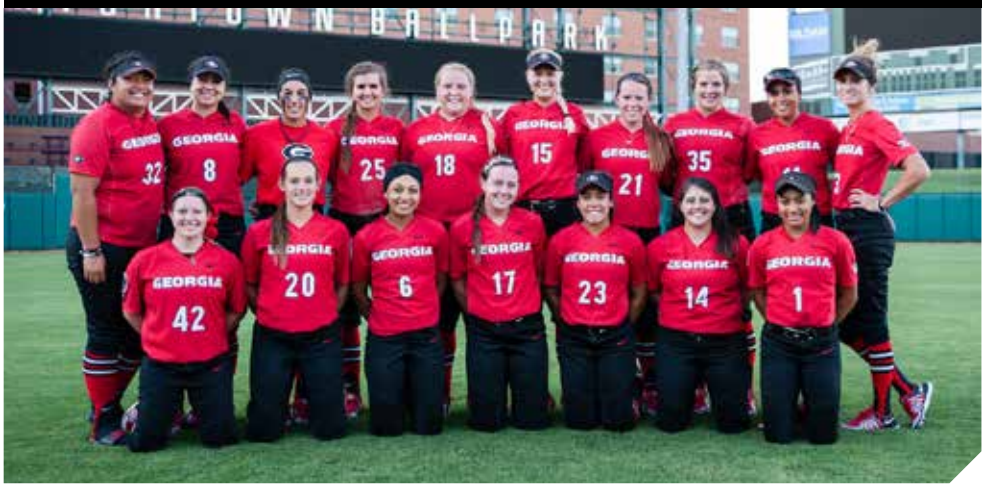
2016 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES



It was a season that went beyond stats, as the heart and fight of the 2016 Georgia Bulldogs led to a special season on the field, culminating in a trip to the program's third Women's College World Series.

The Bulldogs wrapped up their 46-20, 12-12 season with a No. 7 ranking in the final national polls, marking the sixth time that Georgia finished in the top 10 at the year's end and best finish since being top four after WCWS runs in 2009 and 2010.

Earning the No. 16 national seed, Georgia made its 15th-consecutive NCAA Championship appearance, one of 11 teams nationally to do so and just one of three SEC teams. After winning the Athens Regional, Georgia moved on to the Gainesville Super Regional, knocking off No. 1 Florida after a shutout in game one and a pinch-hit, two-strike, two-out, walkoff home run from Kaylee Puailoa in game two. It was the ninth Super Regional appearance in the program's history, as Georgia is one of seven teams to have at least nine appearances since 2005.

It was the first time that a No. 1 seed was swept in Super Regional play while the second time since 2005 that a No. 1 team was eliminated before the WCWS. The pair of wins handed the Gators their first back-to-back losses since March 2015 against LSU. It was also the first time since February 2011 that Georgia defeated a No. 1 ranked team, as the last one was a five-inning 8-0 victory over Arizona.

A huge part of Georgia's success came from its six seniors: Katie Browne, Alex Hugo, Tina Iosefa, Samantha LaZear, Kaylee Puailoa, and Chelsea Wilkinson. Falling two games short of Oklahoma City twice in their careers, this veteran group stepped up when called, guiding Georgia past Maine, Northwestern, and Oklahoma State in the Athens Regional before a magical pair of games at No. 1 Florida in its Super Regional.

Sydni and Cortni Emanuel returned and continued their consistent play at the plate, holding the team's best averages that were also top six among league players while combining for 47 stolen bases. The Bulldogs also relied heavily on its freshmen, but Alyssa DiCarlo and Lacey Sumerlin anchored the left side of the infield, earning SEC All-Freshman honors in the process.

2018 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

The 2018 softball season culminated in Georgia's fourth Women's College World Series appearance in Oklahoma City. The Bulldogs finished with 48 wins, finishing second in the Southeastern Conference in Lu Harris-Champer's 18th season at the helm. Behind seniors Cortni Emanuel, Brittany Gray, and Kendall Burton along with junior Alyssa DiCarlo, Georgia battled adversity much of the season to punch its ticket to OKC.

Georgia swept its way to its fourth WCWS appearance through Regional and Super Regional action in Athens. The Bulldogs defeated Harvard and Northwestern (twice) to win the Athens Regional. Georgia edged #10 Tennessee twice to clinch the Super Regional crown. The Bulldogs outscored opponents 33-13, hitting .339 as a team and slugging nine home runs. Alyssa DiCarlo hit .750 with eight RBI, four home runs, and a 1.917 slugging percentage and .824 on-base clip. In the circle, the staff has recorded a 1.60 ERA.

In OKC, Georgia fell to second-ranked Florida in the opening round then dropped a 7-2 decision to eventual champions Florida State. The Bulldogs concluded the tournament with a .316 batting average and .609 team slugging percentage.

Bulldog seniors Cortni Emanuel and Brittany Gray and junior Alyssa DiCarlo were selected to the 2018 National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-American Teams. In addition to her three-time All-American status, Emanuel was named the 2018 New Balance/NFCA Golden Shoe Award winner, presented annually to the most outstanding base stealer in the country. Veteran Bulldogs Emanuel and Gray were named to the Second Team, and DiCarlo secured a spot on the Third Team. The honor marked the first for both Gray and DiCarlo.

Lu Harris-Champer, who won her third SEC Coach of the Year honor (2003, 2005) guided the Bulldogs to a 43-10 regular-season record, finishing second in the SEC with a 16-8 clip. Georgia's second-place exceeded expectations as the Bulldogs were picked to finish ninth in the Preseason Poll, finishing in last place a season ago. Georgia won seven of eight conference series including wins over then #2 Florida, #7 Tennessee, and #17 Alabama. The Bulldogs opened the season 26-1, the best start in school history, including a 25-game winning streak to tie the program record. 2018 was the 16th 40-win season under Harris-Champer. Georgia's 16 SEC wins were the most since 2012 (17). The Bulldogs made their 17th-consecutive NCAA Regional appearance.

2021 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

After concluding the regular season losing 10 of its last 12 games, the Georgia Bulldogs turned it around in the NCAA Tournament and made a run to the program's fifth appearance in the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City.

Georgia concluded the season No. 8 in both the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) final poll and in the ESPN.com/USA Softball final poll. The Bulldogs had fallen out of the Top 25 going into the tournament only to finish top 10 for the eighth time in program history.

The Bulldogs were chosen as a host site for the NCAA Regional round, hosting No. 13 seed Duke, Western Kentucky, and UNCG. Georgia routed WKU in the opening game in six innings then took down the Blue Devils in a 1-0 thriller to capture a spot in the Regional final. After no offense on Saturday, it was a boat race in against the Blue Devils on Sunday as Georgia was victorious 10-9, punching its ticket to the Super Regional.

Graduate pitcher Mary Wilson Avant became the first-ever Bulldog to pitch back-to-back shutouts for Georgia in postseason play, shutting out No. 4 Florida in both games of the Gainesville Super Regional. The last time Florida was shut out in back-to-back games was 2012. The Gators have only been shut out in back-to-back post season games once, back in 1998 in their first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance. Avant allowed only seven hits through 14 innings to the Gators, including nine strikeouts in game one. Avant's masterful performance in the circle secured Georgia a spot in the Women's College World Series.

The young Bulldog team saw Sydney Kuma garner SEC All-Newcomer Team honors and Sydney Chambley and Jayda Kearney land spots on the SEC All-Freshmen Team. Juniors Lacey Fincher and Jaiden Fields each earned recognition on the NFCA All-Southeast Region Third Team
